FROM THE PUNTINGIQ DESK

A race worthy of more than a tip sheet

The Melbourne Cup is racing theatre, national ritual and the hardest 3200 metres on the Australian calendar. This edition brings together the complete 24-runner field, current market, form-guide history, jockey and trainer records, Cup-specific barrier evidence, speed maps, sectionals and our production AI.

The final order is a 50/50 consensus between PuntingIQ's calibrated production probability and the eight-factor Cup framework: stamina, form, weight, barrier, pace, going, jockey and trainer.

Projected pace: FAST

Field: 24

Expected going: SOFT

FORM-GUIDE OBSERVATION Strong win three back. Dropped out on the heavy track here two back. Drifted back last time and ran the fifth-best last 400m (23.43).

WHY THEY CAN WIN

PuntingIQ ranks this runner inside the top six at 6.2%. The current market is longer than the PuntingIQ fair price.

THE QUERY

The runner is untested at 3200m under the imported form record. The speed map identifies a serious tempo and finishing risk.

#17 Future History is a 9-year-old gelding carrying 53.5kg from barrier 12, ranked No.13 at 3.3%. Career: 48 starts, 10 wins, 22 top-three; 3200m: 1 starts, 0 wins, 0 top-three; Flemington: 8 starts, 2 wins, 3 top-three; condition: 28 starts, 5 wins, 14 top-three. Detailed form includes 9/16 at Flemington over 2500m on Good4, preceded by 4/13 at Caulfield over 2400m. The map projects leader; the finish speed rates bottom 33% and average speed bottom 33% from 10 runs. Barrier history grades gate 12 as weak. Jamie Melham is striking at 14.1% and Gregory Hickman at 5.8% across the verified current scope. The live market is longer than our fair price, creating a value case: market $61 versus PuntingIQ fair $30.18. There are credible positives for multiples, but several higher-ranked runners bring a more complete profile.

JOCKEY

Jamie Melham — 14.1% wins, 41.9% places from 320 rides; Cup record: 1 ride, 1 wins

TRAINER

Gregory Hickman — 5.8% wins, 22.3% places from 121 runners; no recorded Cup sample

FORM-GUIDE OBSERVATION Covered ground from barrier 14 in the MV Cup, sticking on okay. Had chance running a close fourth at previous. Ran 15th in 2023.

WHY THEY CAN WIN

The current market is longer than the PuntingIQ fair price.

THE QUERY

The current map warns that early work may weaken the finish. Barrier 12 sits in the weak historical Cup tier.

#10 Goodie Two Shoes is a 8-year-old mare carrying 55kg from barrier 19, ranked No.19 at 3.0%. Career: 31 starts, 14 wins, 23 top-three; 3200m: 4 starts, 2 wins, 4 top-three; Flemington: 1 starts, 0 wins, 1 top-three; condition: 16 starts, 12 wins, 14 top-three. Detailed form includes 10/11 at Leopardstown over 2414m on Good, preceded by 1/7 at Goodwood over 2816m. The map projects leader; the finish speed rates bottom 33% and average speed bottom 33% from 1 run. Barrier history grades gate 19 as weak. Wayne Lordan is striking at 13.4% and Joseph O'Brien at 15.2% across the verified current scope. The live market is shorter than our fair price, so value is the concern: market $23 versus PuntingIQ fair $33.87. The current evidence leaves this runner needing a career-best performance to overturn the higher-ranked chances.

JOCKEY

Wayne Lordan — 13.4% wins, 37.5% places from 411 rides; Cup record: 5 rides, 0 wins

TRAINER

Joseph O'Brien — 15.2% wins, 36.2% places from 105 runners; Cup record: 12 runners, 2 wins

FORM-GUIDE OBSERVATION Runner-up with 51.5kg last year. Forgive latest run as no hope settling back (the leader won). Came through a gap to win previous. Each way.

WHY THEY CAN WIN

The 3200m record already includes 4 placings.

THE QUERY

The sectional conclusion rests on a very small sample. The current map warns that early work may weaken the finish.

CUP HISTORY • PART THREE

Margins, milestones and mighty crowds

From eight-length demolitions to nose decisions, the Cup has delivered every kind of theatre.

MARGINS

- Archer shares the all-time winning-margin record after scoring by eight lengths in 1862.
- Rain Lover shares the all-time winning-margin record after scoring by eight lengths in 1968.
- Protectionist's four-length victory in 2014 shares the largest winning margin since 2000.
- Verry Elleegant's four-length victory in 2021 shares the largest winning margin since 2000.
- Viewed won the 2008 Cup by a nose, the equal-smallest margin since 2000.
- Dunaden won the 2011 Cup by a nose, the equal-smallest margin since 2000.

THE RACE

- The inaugural Melbourne Cup was staged on Thursday, 7 November 1861.
- The Cup was first run on a Tuesday in 1875.
- Rain forced the Cup to be postponed in 1870 and again in 1916.
- During 1942-44 the Cup was staged on Saturday as part of a two-day carnival.
- Only seven horses contested the 1863 Cup, the smallest field in the race's history.
- The largest Melbourne Cup field contained 39 runners in 1890.
- Archer missed the 1863 Cup after his nomination reportedly arrived in Melbourne one day late.

THE CROWD

- A record 122,736 people attended Flemington on Cup Day in 2003.
- Attendance was limited to 10,000 when Verry Elleegant won in 2021.
- The general public and owners were excluded from Flemington on Cup Day in 2020.
- The 2022 attendance of 73,816 was the lowest since 1995 outside the Covid-affected years.
- Official attendance reached 84,373 in 2025.
